Backgammon is one of the world's oldest board games, dating back some 5,000 years to Mesopotamia.

This popham design Backgammon set is a personal ode to our favorite table game. The playing board is constructed of popham design signature handmade Backgammon concrete tiles set in a brass-clad frame.

The thirty plus- and circle-shaped playing "checkers" are individually hand-cast and polished in our atelier in Marrakech, as are the leather-lined dice shakers.

This decorative product is not intended for use by people under 18.
